2. Under the impression that the G. O. above referred to had been communicated to the Accountant-General, the Court have recently directed the Collector of Madura to pay to a certain creditor of the Ramnad Estate the sum due to him, amounting to about Rs. 2,83,000, and there is another creditor to whom an immediate payment of about Rs. 3,82,000 has to be made at Madras.

3. As the latter has already transferred his security in accordance with the instructions of the law-officers at paragraph 5 of their letter embodied in G. O., 14th August 1873, No. 850, and as the interest payable in this case is over Rs. 100 a-day, the Court of Wards request that the necessary authority may be conveyed to the Accountant-General by telegram.
