Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
12th June 1874.

No. 114. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 1st June 1874, No. 1,316:—

Read the following letter from W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Palman 5th April 1874, No. 226.

My Assistant, Mr. A. F. Cox, having left the district to take up his appointment as Acting Head Assistant to the Collector and Magistrate of South Arcot, pursuant to the Notification published at page 570 of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 31st March 1874, I have the honour to report that I have not, under the circumstances hereinunder explained, as yet dispensed with the office establishment entertained on account of Mr. Cox under the orders noted in the margin.

G. O., dated 15th Jan. 1873, No. 52, R. D.
G. O., „ 25th March „ „ 360.

2. Mr. Cox's absence from the district is only temporary, as he is acting for an officer who has taken less than three months' privilege leave. During his absence no one has been appointed in his stead, and in consequence a heavy addition of work has been thrown on me. It will be productive of very great inconvenience if his office establishment is thrown out of employ during his short absence, and as Mr. Cox is still attached to this district, I beg to recommend that the services of the two clerks, who constitute his office establishment, be retained till his return. The work has to be done, and if the records, etc., are all transferred to the Collector's Office, great confusion is likely to result, as well as delay in the transaction of business; for the Collector's clerks, of course, are ignorant of all that has been going on in the Assistant's Office.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. Under the circumstances, the Board think the Collector should be allowed to retain Mr. Cox's office establishment.

No. 115. ORDER THEREON, 12th June 1874, No. 724.
