Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 12th June 1874.

No. 124. Read the following letter from the Hon. R. A. DALYELL, Third Member of the Board of Revenue, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 7th May 1874:—

With advertence to the order of Government, under date 5th February 1873, No. 143, I have the honour to submit for sanction a contingent bill for Rs. 525-10-8, being the expenditure incurred by me on the salary of a clerk and accountant to assist me in the preparation of my General Report on the Abkari.

2. A copy of the report is forwarded herewith, under a separate cover, for the information of Government. It will be formally submitted hereafter with the observations of the Board of Revenue; but, in the meantime, I request the permission of Government to supply copies, confidentially, to the gentlemen named in the margin of paragraph 26, some of whom have applied to me on the subject.

3. I may mention that though the Government were pleased to rule that I should draw the special deputation allowance of Rs. 500 per mensem while specially employed in connection with the Abkari,—a sanction which was eventually confirmed by the Financial Department of the Government of India, in their letter, dated 12th March 1873, No. 1,654,—this allowance was discontinued on my appointment to act as Third Member of the Board of Revenue in November 1872, and it was not renewed in February 1873, though I ceased to draw any allowance in the Revenue Department beyond my bare salary as Collector of Chingleput, between the date of Mr. Robinson's return to the Board and my assumption of the Acting Secretaryship to Government, and again between my resignation of the latter office and my nomination to be Third Member of the Board, in all for a period of about three months.

No. 125.

ORDER THEREON, 12th June 1874, No. 729.

Separate Revenue, No. 8.

Abkari.

THE contingent expenditure, amounting to Rs. 525-10-8, is sanctioned.

2. Mr. Dalyell is at liberty to furnish copies of his report to the gentlemen named in paragraph 26 thereof.
