Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Department,
31st August 1874.

No. 76. Read the following Extract from a despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India:—

Statistics and Commerce.

No. 4.

INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
30th July 1874.

2. In cases where it is desired that articles of a special character should be obtained by officers on leave or on duty in this country the proper course is to place them in communication with the Director-General of Stores of this office, by whom the articles selected by them are purchased from the suppliers in the usual manner.

3. By these means, without interfering with the officer's liberty of selection, security is obtained that the expenditure is kept within the sanctioned amount and that the needful forms of account are observed.

I have, &c.,
SALISBURY.

His Excellency the Right Honorable
The Governor in Council, Fort St. George.

No 77 ORDER THEREON, 31st August 1874, No 622

2. An extract (paragraphs 2 and 3) from the despatch will be forwarded to the departments of the Secretariat for information and guidance.
