No. 190. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 9th May 1874, No. 1,080:—

Read the following letter from J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cuddalore, 9th April 1874, No. 170.

WITH reference to the Board's Circular Order No. XXI. of 1866, directing that the keys of the District Treasury should be left in charge of the resident Assistant who may remain at head-quarters during the Collector's absence in the district, I have the honour to point out that the Assistant Collector's presence is sometimes required in the taluq at some distance from head-quarters and during my absence from it, and to ask whether, under those circumstances, the keys may not be transferred to the custody of the Treasury Deputy-Collector; it being, of course, understood that directly the Collector or his Assistant returns to head-quarters the custody of the keys is to be resumed by one of them.

2. I think to this extent the Board's Circular Order quoted above requires alteration.

ARRANGEMENTS should always be made for a European Covenanted Office to be present at the head-quarters during the absence of the Collector; but if at time it becomes the duty of the Collector to leave the head-quarters before he can be relieved by a European Officer the Treasury keys may be entrusted to the Treasury Deputy-Collector as a very temporary measure.

No. 1,080.

Keys of District Treasury—may, as a very temporary measure, be entrusted to Treasury Deputy Collector in cases where Collector finds it necessary to leave head quarters before he can be relieved by a European Covenanted Officer, but arrangements should always be made for a European Officer to be present at head quarters during Collector's absence.
