Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 15th June 1874.

No. 106. Read the following letter from Major T. E. TENNANT, Inspector-General of Jails, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St George, dated Ootacamund, 9th June 1874, No. 95 :—

With reference to G.O., No. 794, dated the 30th April 1874, I have the honour to forward a letter from the Superintendent of the Central Jail at Rajahmundry, together with a rough plan showing the proposed site of the Superintendent's house.

2. It is desirable that all the land between the compound wall of the Jail and the Superintendent's quarters should be in the hands of the Jail Department so as to prevent any portion falling into private occupation. The land applied for is described as "dry Government unoccupied land," and, should any portion of it be required hereafter for other purposes, it may be surrendered.

From Surgeon-Major J. BILDERBECK, Superintendent of the Central Jail, Rajahmundry, to Colonel W. J. WILSON, Inspector-General of Jails, dated Rajahmundry, 30th May 1874, No. 57.

In reply to your docket, No. 1457, of the 7th instant, and Proceedings of Government as per margin, inquiring as to the extent of land necessary for the site of the Superintendent's quarters, I have the honour to state that it was considered advisable to apply for all the waste land lying in front, between the house and the jail, in order that the Superintendent may always command direct and ready access to the Jail, and also have a tolerably clear view of the jail grounds, which would not be the case if any portion of the land between fell into the private occupation of any person and became built upon. Upon reference to the sketch forwarded with my letter, No. 123, dated 11th September 1873, you will observe that the site, as it now stands, is separated from the Jail only by a narrow strip of land consisting of the race-course and main road.

Jail. Dept., No. 794, dated 30th April 1874.

2. I have already informed you in the above-mentioned letter that, in consequence of the strip of private garden land immediately at the back of the house not being obtainable for the erection of stables and out-houses, the Acting Collector, Mr. Foster, who personally visited and examined the site, arranged to give over, in lieu thereof, a triangular strip of waste land to the south-west.

No. 107 ORDER THEREON, 15th June 1874, No. 1083.

Communicated to the Revenue Department, in continuation of Order, dated the 30th April 1874, No. 794.

2. The land as shown in the plan appears to be necessary.

(True Extract.)

Acting Chief Secretary.

To the Revenue Department, with the plan.
,, Inspector-General of Jails.
