Sir,

As directed in para. 2 of G.O.
29th May 1874, N° 689, I have the honor to report on the typographical errors noticed by the Secretary of State as occurring in the Cam-parato statement of births and deaths ~~as~~ referred to para. 14 of Board's Proceedings 21st February 1873, N° 269, which is incorporated in G.O. N° 500, dated 19th May 1873.

On referring to the Proceedings as originally printed for the Board, I find that the statement is correctly entered, and it is thus evident that the errors which occur

3 It is probable that the mischief was caused by some unprincipled compositor, who, to save himself time or trouble, abstracted the figures he required for the work he had in hand, and replaced them with others taken at his hand.

4 This is a not uncommon offence, but in ordinary cases the matter tampered with, matter not yet printed from, and no harm results, as the proof reader and examiners detect the error before the fair impressions are struck.

5 In the case, however, of standing matter, (or matter which has already been printed from) it has not hitherto been considered necessary to take fresh proofs and make fresh examination before reprinting from it, and thus the introduction of errors into the reprint has been liable to escape detection.

6 Arrangements have now been made to have proofs of all standing matter taken & examined before reprinting, and it is believed that by this means the recurrence of such serious typographical errors as those under notice will be effectually prevented.
