No. 30. Read the following Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated 15th June 1874, No. 1,453.

Read the following letter from A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Court of Wards, dated 15th May 1874, No. 119:—

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Court, the death of Mootoo Kristnasawmy Calingaraya Gownder, Zemindar of Ootookooly, in the Pollachy Taluq, of Coimbatore District, on the 23rd April, leaving a widow and two sons, named Sivasoobramanya Trimoorthy Calingaraya Gownder, and Mootooramasawmy Calingaraya Gownder, aged respectively 15 years and 4 months, and 11 years.

2. The Estate was an unsettled poliyam, but a deed of permanent settlement was issued to the late Zemindar in 1871 —Vide correspondence noted in the margin. The Polliput is one paying an annual peishcush of Rupees 4,393-0-8 to Government; the Zemindar, besides, owns putta lands at Anamallay assessed at Rupees 500, and also lands in Cochin Territory yielding an income of about Rs. 2,500 per annum. The Estate is not involved in any debt, and seems to be a well managed property.

Collector's letter printed with Board's Proceedings, No. 4,264 A. of 8th July 1867.
From Proceedings of Board, to Collector, No. 3,352 of 9th August 1871.

3. Sivasoobramanya Trimoorthy Calingaraya Gownder, the eldest son and [illegible] been prosecuting his studies under a matriculated teacher. The widow knows a little Tamil and signs her name. Their wishes are that the Estate should be left to their own management as both the minor and his mother believe themselves capable of conducting the affairs of the Estate, and consider it would be very inconvenient that the Estate should fall under the management of the Court of Wards, for only a couple of years. The Tahsildar testifies to the capacity of the mother, whom, of course I have not seen, (I have several times examined the boy in his lessons, which he seemed to have learned as well as could be expected from a private tutor,) and considers that the Estate may be safely left in the hands of the minor, under the natural guardianship of his mother. It seems that when the deceased was himself a minor, scarcely ten years old, this Polliput was left to be managed by his guardians—Vide Revenue Board's Proceedings, No.— of 23rd September 1839.

4. Under these circumstances, I do not consider that the interference of the Court of Wards is called for in this case, and await further orders accordingly. Lists of personal property have been made, and every thing is in readiness in case the Estate is to be taken under Court's management. The other relatives of the Zemindar are distant cousins, separated two or three generations back, who maintain themselves on lands allotted to them.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The Board are of opinion that there is no necessity for the Court's interference, for the present, at any rate.
