REMARKS.—On the portion of land lost to the Inamdar a tope was planted many years ago by the late Collector Mr. Robertson. This tope was sold to one Gooty Strinivasa Row by a late Collector about fasli 1268 with the land on which it stood, and he seems to have sold it to Raghappa of Kuttihellagal. It would appear from inquiry, as stated by the Sub-Collector, that at the time of sale it was not noticed that the land was a portion of the Kavaly Service Inam. Loss has thus accrued to the Inamdar, and other land (Government waste) has herein been proposed to be granted to him.

The following will illustrate the cause of the Inamdar having been so long silent without applying for a fresh grant:—

1*st.*—That he had a large extent of Inam, while a small portion only had been appropriated for the tope which was planted for a public use.

2*ndly.*—That the Inam was under attachment for some years after the planting of the tope and up to the date of Mr. Pelly's order, as the Inamdar had failed to do duty.

3*rdly.*—That Raghappa who obtained the tope from the original purchaser had been till lately on friendly terms with the Inamdar, in fact, useful to him in matters connected with the cultivation of the Inam, but that lately the friendship between the m came to an end.
