Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 13th July 1874.

No. 109. Read the following letter from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Revenue Department, to C. G. MASTER, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Bombay Castle, 8th July 1874, No. 3,487:—

IN dealing with applications for refund of duty levied upon goods not shipped, or upon goods shipped and afterwards re-landed under Act X. of 1868 (An Act to amend the Consolidated Customs Act), it has been the practice in the Customs Department here to calculate the period of three days within which such refund is admissible from the date on which the vessel obtained her port clearance; and I am desired to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor of Madras, you will be so good as to ascertain and inform this Government whether the same practice is observed in the Custom-house at Madras, or whether the time of three days is reckoned from the date on which the vessel actually leaves the port.

No. 110. ORDER THEREON, 13th July 1874, No. 876.

100,

In dealing with applications for refund of duty, levied upon goods not shipped or upon goods shipped and afterwards reloaded under Act X of 1868 (An Act to amend the Consolidated Customs Act) it has been the practice in the Customs Department here to calculate the period of three days within which such refund is admissible from the date on which the vessel obtained her port clearance, and I am desirous to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor of Madras, you will be so good as to ascertain and inform this Government whether the same practice is observed in the Customs House at Madras, or whether the time of three days is reckoned from the date on which the vessel actually leaves the port.

Respectfully
From
The Chief Secretary to the Govt of Bombay
