17th July 1874.*

No. 138.

Dated 17th July 1874, No. 890.

Miscellaneous.

ADVERTISING to the employment of Additional Deputy-Collectors in several districts, His Excellency the Governor in Council resolved on Trichinopoly and Madura the two officers (C. Sirasankara Mudali and P. Subbaiyer) who have been employed there on general and remission duty, respectively, as in the former case there is already an Assistant, and in the latter the state of the season renders special inquiry unnecessary.

2. Temporary employment elsewhere will be found for both.

3. The Collector of South Arcot will report how much longer the services of Meer Ansurdin Sahib are required for the special duty adverted to in G. O., 29th September 1873, No. 1,047, and when S. Venkata Subbiah can be spared.

4. Now that an Assistant is posted to Chingleput, the Collector will report on the necessity of retaining Mr. A. M. Jones in that district. The progress made by C. Venkatesiah in the special work entrusted to him should also be stated.
