PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE.

Dated 28th July 1874.

Read the following

N^o 354.

From

R. W. Barlow Esq^r
Collector of the Chingleput District.

To

J. Gross Esq^r
Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras.

SIR,

D. Audiseshiah, Cash Keeper, having attained the age of 55, the Accountant General has disallowed his pay for April last, on the ground that he has not been permitted by Government to continue in service.

2. Audiseshiah has done good work, and there are not wanting indications to show that the rest he has earned is desirable, but to entitle him to his half pension, he wants but little over a month's more service. I have the honor, therefore, to recommend that sanction may may be obtained for his retention up to the 20th Proximo, and that the Accountant

General may be authorized to pass his pay in the meantime.
