No. 174. Read the following letter from R. B. CHAPMAN, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Fort William, 29th January 1874, No. 661 (Accounts):—

In reply to your letter, No. 6954—348-R, dated 27th December 1873, I am directed to state that the Governor-General in Council is pleased to allow the Government of Bombay to authorize, whenever it thinks it necessary, District Officers to charge in the accounts the value of the service postage stamps purchased by them, in the fixed proportion of three-fourths to the Revenue and one-fourth to the Judicial Departments. Whenever the cost of an establishment is divided between two heads, the charge for service postage labels may be divided in the same proportion, care being taken to secure every possible economy.

Ordered that this letter be distributed for information and guidance as follows:—

To the several Local Governments and Administrations.

To the Comptroller-General, and to the several Accountants-General and Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
