The existing short and narrow shelves of the Record-room of the Udipi Taluk Catcherry being now found incapable of containing all the records, some of which had lately to be kept on the floor, exposed to damp in the monsoon and to the attacks of white-ants, I have the honor to submit, herewith, an estimate, accompanied by plan and specification, furnished by the Officiating District Engineer, for constructing higher and more commodious shelves, so as to afford sufficient room for all the records.

2. Provision has also been made in the estimate, which amounts to Rs. 500, for ceiling the room with planks and asphaltting the floor, to protect the records from the ravages of rats and white-ants.

3. I request that, when the estimate is sanctioned, the necessary funds may be provided for executing the improvements, which are urgently required.
