Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
20th January 1874.

No. 177. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 19th January 1874, Miscellaneous No. 318:—

Read the following letter from A. McC. WEBSTER, Esq., Acting Collector of Madras, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 15th January 1874, No. 6.

Owing to information given to the Collector, Mr. Blair, by the Acting Deputy-Collector Suryamurthi Pillay regarding frauds in the Abkari Draw-out Godown, certain officials in that department were suspended by Mr. Blair pending inquiries, and Suryamurthi Pillay was called on to examine them and report further in the case. This order was sent to Suryamurthi Pillay on the 14th November 1873. He has not yet submitted his report, though a reminder was sent to him. As he states that he proposes to leave Madras to-morrow to take up his permanent appointment as Deputy-Collector of Madura, I have issued the accompanying order, directing him to remain at Madras, and to send in his report within one week. It is very necessary that the officer on whose report the men were suspended should himself complete the inquiries into the case, and I have the honour, therefore, to request that the Board will approve of the order I have given, and will request the Accountant-General to pass Suryamurthi Pillay's pay for the time he remains in Madras.

SUBMITTED to Government with the request that Suryamurthi Pillay may be allowed to remain in Madras for a week to complete the inquiry referred to by the Collector.

No. 178. ORDER THEREON, 20th January 1874, No. 93.

Separate Revenue, No. 10.

Abkari.

SANCTIONED—but the time need not be rigorously restricted to a week if good reason is shown for an extension.

2. The Board will, of course, require the Deputy-Collector to explain the delay which the Acting Collector animadverts on.

Official Memorandum

As the late Acting Deputy Collector Sargamurthi Pillai has not yet forwarded to the Collector, the reports called for in Collector's letters noted in the margin, and as the Officials of the Alkharri Draw-out godown were suspended owing to the charges made against them in Sargamurthi Pillai's letter of 12th November 1873 N^o 876 the Acting Collector requests that Sargamurthi Pillai will not leave Madras to take up his permanent appointment of Deputy Collector of Madras until the report is submitted.

There has been very great delay in the submission of the report, and this delay must be fully explained by Sargamurthi Pillai. The Board of Revenue will be requested to sanction the retention
