Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
8th October 1874.

No. 82. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 24th September 1874, No. 2,748 :—

Read the following letter from J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cuddalore, 28th August 1874, No. 437.

With reference to the Miscellaneous Proceedings of the Board, dated 24th ultimo, No. 4,978, referring for report order of Government, No. 22, dated 3rd idem, as to why the amount embezzled by the Monegar's gumastah of Kanakankuppam should not be recovered from the registered Monegar himself, I have the honor to report that though the Monegar is clearly responsible for the acts of his gumastah, yet as it appears from the enclosed copies of letters* from the Acting Head Assistant Collector that neither the Monegar nor his gumastah has any property worth proceeding against for the recovery of the sum embezzled (the former being described as being in very poor circumstances), I consider that there is no alternative but to write off the accounts the sum of Rupees 112-5-7 as irrecoverable and to dismiss the Monegar.

* Dated 4th August 1874, Nos. 288 and 289.

Enclosure No. 1.

From A. F. COX, Esq., Head Assistant Collector, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Collector of South [illegible], dated Tindivanam, 1st August 1874, No. 288.

With reference to a Jamabundi Diary order of yours, I have the honor to forward Arzi (to be returned), No. 284, from the Tahsildar of Villapuram, and to inform you that the Monegar's gumastah of Kanakankuppam village, who was convicted of peculation, is reported to possess only a hut worth Rupees 2 and the Issumdar, another of equal value, besides cawnies 1-1-2 of punjah land. This land, one Narayana Gounden, of Veliyandal village, has been enjoying for the last twenty years on a right of mortgage, so that the Issumdar possesses no right in the property, except that of redeeming it.

2. I leave it to your disposal the suggestion made by the Tahsildar at the close of the Arzi that, as the Issumdar is also responsible for the money embezzled, he be kept in the Civil Jail under the provisions of Section 6, Regulation IX. of 1822.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) J. H. GARSTIN,
Collector.

Enclosure No. 2.

From the same officer, dated 4th August 1874, No. 289.

Adverting to your letter of the 29th ultimo, No. 805, I have the honor to furnish the information called for regarding Peruma Gounden, of Kanakankuppam, who is charged with embezzlement.

2. He is only the Monegar's gumastah and not Monegar, the Issumdar being one Sinnadu Gounden. The latter is an illiterate person, and on this account Peruma Gounden was appointed Monegar's gumastah at the request of the Issumdar.

3. He is described to be in very poor circumstances, earning his daily bread by selling curry stuff and such small goods. He possesses a hut and some land which has been mortgaged to a third person.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
8th October 1874.

4. All that can be done, therefore, is to attach this property, and to send the man, as the Tahsildar suggests (vide this office letter No. 283) to prison.

(True Copy.)
(Signed) J. H. GARSTIN,
Collector.

SUBMITTED to Government, with reference to G. O., dated 3rd July 1874, No. 22.

2. It appears that the Monegar is too poor for the money which has been embezzled to be collected from him.

No. 83. ORDER THEREON, 8th October 1874, No. 1,288.
