Circular Government Order.

Some District Engineers having relinquished large allotments without assigning satisfactory reasons for the same, and without notice to Collectors of Districts who have to be consulted as to the entry of such allotments in the Annual Budgets, all District Engineers are hereby required, in future years, to give timely notice (not later than before the Xmas Holidays) to Collectors of all considerable sums, over Rupees 1,500, which they have reason to believe they will have to surrender in their statements due on the 31st January. And they will note in such statements any sums against the entry of which Collectors shall have protested.
