Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 15th July 1875.

No. 171. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 7th July 1875, No. 1,876 :—

Read the following letter from R. J. MELVILLE, Esq., Acting Collector of the Chingleput District, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sydapet, 23rd June 1875, No. 353 :—

I HAVE the honor to forward translation of a plaint filed in Original Suit No. 16 of 1874 in the District Court of Chingleput by one Royalu Strinivassa Charry of Damal against Kanakammal and Tattay Narasimmah Charry of the same village, and request the orders of the Board as to whether it is not necessary to move the Court to include the Collector as supplemental defendant for the reasons detailed below.

2. The property sued for is the identical one referred to in G.O., dated 25th July 1874, No. 935, and Board's Proceedings, dated 5th May and 30th June 1874, Nos. 1,039 and 1,630, respectively, regarding which a suit has already been filed on behalf of Government as directed by the Board in their Proceedings, No. 3,231, of the 10th November last.

3. Plaintiff states that he is the "Sapinda Dayadi" of the late Strinivassa Ragava Charry, the husband of Kanakammal, and therefore the next legal heir to the property after the death of Kanakammal. His object in bringing the suit is to obtain a declaratory decree to the effect that he is the ulterior heir to the said property and to prevent alienation of the same by the widow during her life.

4. The existence of plaintiff was never before known to the revenue authorities; and, as far as I have been able to learn at present, he appears to be a man totally unconnected with Vedanta Iyengar, the person referred to in paragraph 3 of Mr. Barlow's No. 104, dated 26th March 1874, printed in Board's Proceedings of 5th May 1874, No. 1,039.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Translation of Plaint.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government with reference to G.Os., dated 23th July 1874, No. 935, and 2nd October 1874, No. 1,252.

2. In 1858 one Strinivassa Ragava Charry died possessed of considerable property, leaving no heirs except two widows, who divided the property. Previous to her death in 1872 the senior widow Latchmammal transferred her share to her brother Narasimmah Charry, who is now in possession with the consent of the junior widow. A suit has been instituted to obtain a declaratory decree as to the right of Government to the property as an escheat on the death of the surviving widow Kanakammal.

3. It is now reported that one Strinivassa Charry, who says he is a Sapinda of the late Strinivassa Ragava Charry, has instituted a suit against Kannakammal and Narasimmah Charry to obtain a declaratory decree that he is the ulterior heir entitled to succeed to the property on the death of Kannakammal. The Collector inquires whether he should move the Court to include him as a defendant in the suit. The Board consider it advisable that he should do so provided that, on further careful inquiry, he sees reason to believe that the claim is unfounded or doubtful.

No. 1,876.

Suit—No. 16 of 1874, filed in Chingleput District Court for a declaratory decree that plaintiff is the ulterior heir to the property left by deceased Srinivasa Raghava Chary of Dama after the death of his junior widow.—Letter from Collector inquiring whether he should move the Court to include him as a defendant in—submitted to Government.

With an Order

the orders of the Board as to whether it is not necessary to move the Court to include the Collector as supplemental Defendant for the reasons detailed below.

2. The property sued for is the identical one referred to in Government Order dated 25th July 1874, N^o 935, and Board's Proceedings dated 5th May and 30th June 1874 N^{os} 1039 & 1630 respectively, regarding which a suit has already been filed on behalf of Government as directed by the Board in their Proceedings N^o 323 of the 10th November last.

3. Plaintiff states that he he is the "Tapiada Dayadi" of the late Theenivassa Raguachary, the husband of Kanakammal and therefore the next legal heir to the property after the death of Kanakammal. It is object in bringing the suit is to obtain a declaratory decree to the effect that he is the anterior heir to the said property and to prevent alienation of the same by the widow during her life.

4. The existence of plaintiff was never before known to the revenue authorities; and as far as I have been able to learn at present, he appears to be a man totally unconnected with Vidanta. Sengar, the person referred to in paras of Mr.

Barlow's No. 104, dated 26th March 1874, printed in Board's Proceedings of 5th May 1874, No. 1039.

Chingleput D. Colln Office } I have Saidapett } E. W. R. f. Melville 23rd June 1875 - Acting Collector

Submitted for the orders of Government with reference to G.O. dated 25th July 1874, No. 935, and 2^d October 1874, No. 1252.

In 1858 one Sreenivasa Ragavachary died possessed of considerable property having no heirs except two widows who divided the property. Previous to her death in 1872, the senior widow Latchammall transferred her her share to her brother Narasimbachary who is now in possession with the consent of the junior widow.

A suit has been instituted to obtain a declaratory decree as to the right of Government to the property as an escheat on the death of the surviving widow Kanakammall.

It is now reported that one Sreenivasa chary who says he is a Sapinda of the late Sreenivasa Ragavachary has instituted a suit against Kanakammall and Narasimbachary to obtain a declaratory decree that he is the ulterior heir entitled to succeed to the property on the death of Kanakamall. The collector inquires whether he should move the Court to include him as a defendant in the suit. The Board consider it advisable that he should do so provided that on further careful inquiry he sees reason to believe that the claim is unfounded or doubtful.
