Sir,

The correspondence noted in the margin has reference to the dismissal of Baliji Rau from the post of Vernacular Clerk in the Office of the Assistant Collector of this District. The Government having, on appeal, in their order, dated 5th October 1874, directed his reinstatement from the date of the the Order, Babji Rau was appointed Gumastah of the Maderpak Division in lieu of Chinnasami Mudali, who was recommended for a pension. The former having entered upon his duties in the afternoon of the 1st Decr. last has been paid, under the existing rules, a moiety of the pay of the latter from the 2nd Idem, and the other moiety will be paid to him (Babji Row) from that date on the result of the application for pension on behalf of Chinnasamy Mudali being known. As however the Government direct that Babji Rau should be restored to his former post from the date of their order, and there being no savings savings available from which he can be paid, I have the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to sanction the disbursement of the pay due to him from the 5th October to 1st December last from General Savings.

Order directing his reinstatement to his own post. I had received information showing him to be a man of extremely indifferent character. Moreover he has many relations in and about Chittoor, and one of his own sons, I may mention very narrowly escaped being tried not long ago for receiving with a guilty knowledge some property stolen from my house by one of my servants and found in his possession. On these grounds I did not desire to retain him in my own office, and therefore I transferred him to the Madera-pauk Sub Magistrate's Office as Gumastah on equal pay (namely Rupees 15 per mensem) to to that which he was drawing while a clerk in my Office.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. The reasons given by the Collector may be accepted as sufficient justification for the transfer of the individual in question from the Collector's Office to an appointment of equal pay in the taluks; but the Collector has not explained why he was not restored to his own post pending a vacancy elsewhere on the receipt of the Government orders of 5th October 1874.

3. In the circumstances however the Board request Government to sanction the disbursement of the pay due to Babji

Babji Rao from 5th October to 1st December 1874.
