I.—The accuracy of messages is not guaranteed, and the Sender and Receiver must accept all risks arising from non-delivery, errors, or delays.
 II.—All Offices will be closed to the public between the hours of 8 A. M. and 4 P. M. (local time) on Sunday, Good Friday, and the Queen's Birthday.
 V.—Senders of messages are advised to write their messages in an unmistakable and distinct hand, and to use the shortest and most familiar words they can select.
 VI.—No charge is made for the transmission of the address. (Names of stations from and to which the message is to be despatched, and the names or designations of Sender and Addressee, and the latter's address.)
 XXI.—The following are the rates of charges for a message in ordinary language:—
 a. Between any two stations in India, or between any two stations in British Burmah, one Rupee for every six words or less.
 b. Between any station in India and any station in British Burmah, or between any station in India and any station in Ceylon, one Rupee eight annas for every six words or less.
 c. Between any station in Ceylon and any station in British Burmah, two Rupees for every six words or less.
 XXII.—A double charge is levied on all messages tendered for transmission between the hours of 6 P. M. and 6 A. M. (local time), also on Sundays and the following holidays:—Christmas Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, and the Queen's Birthday.
 XXIII.—The charge for a message in Orissa, is double the charge for a message in ordinary language.
 XXIV.—A message can be sent from any station of the Government Telegraph Department to any Railway Telegraph Station, or vice versa, without additional charge.
 XXV.—The day, hour, and minute of receipt of a message into a Telegraph Office for despatch are added by the department and telegraphed free of charge.
 XXVIII.—Messages can be collated or repeated back from Station to Station to ensure correctness.
 XXX.—The charge for collation is equal to half the charge for the message. A collated message is indicated by the word "collated," which, to ensure the greatest accuracy, is telegraphed (free) both in the official instructions and as the first word of the text of the message.
 XXXI.—The charge for a message can prepay an Adress of Delivery. In this case the terminal station immediately after the delivery of the message, despatches a telegram to the sender announcing the exact time at which it reached its destination.
 XXXII.—The charge for an Adress of Delivery is that for a single message at ordinary or day rate.
 XXXIII.—The Sender of a message can prepay a reply. He must add the words "reply paid" or "answer paid." These must form the concluding words of the message, but will not be charged for. On depositing the corresponding sum the Sender can add (free) to the words "reply paid" or "answer paid" the amount to which he wishes the reply to be limited.
 XXXIV.—Messages will be delivered free of charge at any place within five miles of a Telegraph Station. Beyond this distance, messages will be sent by Post or by such other means as the Sender may arrange and pay for.
 XLVII.—No refund will be made for a message delivered wholly or partially in an unintelligible state unless the extra charge for collation (see Note XXXIX) has been paid on.
 Applications for refunds, as also all complaints respecting messages, should be addressed to the TELEGRAPH CHECK OFFICE, CALCUTTA. Every claim should be made, under penalty of rejection within two months from the date of the message.
