Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to report on the work done by the extra Record clerks sanctioned in G. O. No. 1043 of 19 August 1874, as also that remaining to be done.

English Records

Paged and indexed the Proceedings of Government
1861 to 1865 Revenue Dept. No. of books — 7

D. — 1869 to 1873. Rev. Dept. — 7

Judicial Dept. — 5

P.W. Dept. — 4

Paged and added keys to the indexes to G. O.
1866 to 1868: —

Revenue Department — 3

Judicial Department — 2

Total Books. 28

Vernacular Records

Indexes have been prepared for the Records of 1860, and for Fyehy 1240 (1830-31). A great deal has still to be done, and the clerk's services are required for a year more.

2. In the English Records, there are 407. File Books of Received Letters from various Departments to be gone through so as to separate useful papers for preservation, and the rest for destruction.

150. Office copies of sent letters to be recopied for preservation.

7. Books of Indexes of G.O's 1828 to 1860 and Board's Proceedings 1800 to 1851 to be re-copied, as the old copies have lost the color of ink and are not easily readable.

I calculate this work will take an intelligent clerk one year to perform. If a clerk on Rs 35 per month be allowed I propose to detach him for the ordinary daily duties of 4/11/81

of the Record, which has now been arranged, and can be looked after by a new hand. This would leave the recordkeeper entirely for the work above alluded to, viz, separating the useless records for destruction, and useful records for permanent preservation, and indexing the latter out of the 407 Books.

I have
Coimbatore Collection } (Signed) A. Woderburn
Office, 15 April 1875 } Collector.

In their order dated 19 August 1874 No. 1043 Government sanctioned the establishment of two additional clerks one on Rupees 20 and another on Rupees 30 for six months to index the English and Vernacular Records.

2. The collector now reports that much remains to be done and that the services of the extra hands will be required for a year longer. The sanction of Government is accordingly requested. The charge can be met from from General Savings under Land Revenue.

There seems no necessity for raising the pay of one of the clerks to Rupees 35 as proposed by the collector.

It must be remembered however
