Sir

1 The despatch of your Excellency in Council dated the 16th March 1875,
on the subject of the large increase of sales of Land for arrears of Revenue has been considered by me
in Council.

2. I observe that your Government

of revenue.—According to the State, passing the large increase

have resolved to suspend action upon my instructions: and that in coming to
that resolution the majority overruled
the opinion of the late Governor, Lord
Hobart.

3. The change in the composition of
your Government
which has taken place, as well as the time that has elapsed since the reports were made on which those

instructions were based,
make it inexpedient
to insist on their execution now.

4. I shall await
any further information you may have to give me with respect to the exercise of the power of sale and the degree of severity with which it practically presses upon the people. For the present I commend the subject to your vigilant attention.
