G.O. No.	1212	Press
B.P. No.		Mis.

No. 112. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 20th July 1875, Miscellaneous No. 6,562:—

Read the following letter from F. WILKINSON, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector, to C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, dated Oosoor, 5th July 1875, No. 371.

I VENTURE to appeal against the Order of Government, No. 923, dated 17th June last (received this day), by which I am virtually fined Rs. 175 for taking two months' privilege leave, and have the honor to request you will forward my letter for the favorable consideration of the Governor in Council.

2. With reference to paragraph 4, Section 24, Chapter VI., of the Civil Leave Code, I respectfully submit that I am clearly entitled to draw the fixed tentage as Sub-Collector of Salem during my privilege leave inasmuch as I placed my tents at the disposal of the officer who officiated for me.

3. In paragraph 3 of his letter to you, dated 22nd April (embodied in the above Proceedings of Government), Mr. LeFanu states that he "was obliged to bring his own tents, which were pitched in camp at Bagalore en route to Oosoor." With reference to this statement, I beg to remark that, as soon as I knew Mr. LeFanu was to act for me, I placed my tents at his disposal. I was at that time engaged in the settlement of the Trichengode Talug, and my tents were at Sunkerrydroog, a distance of 108 miles from Oosoor. Had Mr. LeFanu informed me that he intended to halt at Bagalore, I should have made arrangements to send my tents by rail, so that they might have been ready for him. Bagalore being only ten miles from Maloor and eight from Oosoor, I could not foresee that a gentleman with two carriages and three horses at his disposal (vide note to paragraph 8 of Mr. LeFanu's letter) would find it necessary to halt there.

4. As this was the only occasion on which Mr. LeFanu used his tents during the whole two months he acted for me, the necessity for his bringing his tents with him is not apparent. I had been out in camp from the middle of January until the 7th April, and had completed the settlement of the three taluqs allotted to the Sub-Collector. As therefore, so far as I could judge, Mr. LeFanu had no immediate necessity for tents, I sent mine back by road (informing Mr. LeFanu) thinking they would reach Oosoor as soon as he required them. As it turned out Mr. LeFanu had no occasion to use tents, either mine or his own, while he acted for me, he merely kept his in a godown in Oosoor instead of in a godown in Tripatore.

5. As, therefore, the question narrows itself to this: who is to draw the fixed tentage allowed for the upkeep of tents? as I had to keep up my tents just as Mr. LeFanu had, and as by the Civil Leave Code I am entitled to draw the allowance, I trust that Government will see fit to reconsider their order.

6. I admit that it is hard that a locum tenens should be unable, under the rules in force, to draw fixed tentage, but I submit that it is just as hard on me to be deprived of the Rs. 87-8-0 a-month allowed for the upkeep of tents, and to have to keep up my tents all the same.

SUBMITTED through the Board for the favorable consideration of Government. Under the circumstances stated by Mr. Wilkinson, it appears that there was no necessity for Mr. LeFanu bringing his own tents to Oossoor. He could have had the use of Mr. Wilkinson's by informing that officer that he required them at Bagalore, and Mr. LeFanu could have left his tents for the use of his locum tenens, Mr. Thomson, at Tripatore.

my privilege leave, inasmuch as I placed my tents at the disposal of the Officer who officiated for me.

3. In para 3 of his letter to you dated 22^d April (embodied in the above Proceedings of Government)

Mr Le Franc states that he "was obliged to bring his own tents, which were pitched in camp at Bagalore, en route to Coosor." With reference to this statement I beg to remark that as soon as I knew Mr Le Franc was to act for me, I placed my tents at his disposal. I was at that time engaged in the Settlement of the Fri-chengode Talug and my tents were at Senkerry droog, a distance of of 108 miles from Coosor. I had Mr Le Franc informed me that he intended to halt at Bagalore, I should have made arrangements to send my tents by rail, so that they might have been ready for him. Bagalore being only 10 miles from Maloor and 8 from Coosor, I could not foresee that a gentleman with two carriages and three horses at his disposal (Vide note to para 8 of Mr Le Franc's letter) would find it necessary to halt there.

4. As this was the only occa-sion on which Mr Le Franc used his tents during the whole two months he acted for me the

the necessity for his bringing his tents with him is not apparent.
I had been out in camp from the middle of January until the 7th April and had completed the settlement of the three Salugs allotted to the Sub Collector. As therefore, so far as I could judge, Mr Le Franc had no immediate necessity for tents, I sent mine thinking they would reach Coosoor as soon as he required them. As it turned out Mr Le Franc had no occasion to use tents, either mine or his own, while he acted for me. He merely kept his in a go down in Coosoor, instead of in a godown in Tripatore.

5. As therefore the question narrows itself to this - who is to draw the fixed tentage allowed for the upkeep of tents, As I had to keep up my tents just as Mr Le Franc had, and as by the Civil Service Code I am entitled to draw the allowance, I trust that Government will see fit to reconsider their order.

6. I admit that it is hard that a locum tenens should be unable under the rules in force, to draw fixed tentage, but I on me to be deprived of the Rs 87-8-0 a month allowed for the upkeep of tents and to have to keep up my tents all the same.
