Proceedings of the Board of Revenue

Dated 25th May 1875

Read the following

No. 130.

From.

A. Wedderburn Esqr.

To.

Collector of Coimbatore

H. E. Stokes Esqr.

Ag. Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Madras.

Sir

When Her Highness the Princess of Tanjore halted at Erode on her way to and from Madras in April last, she was received with due respect and accommodated at that station according to the orders of Government.

2. The Tahsildar of Erode reports that Her Highness expressed her satisfaction at her reception, and presented presented the Tahsildar Mr. R. Venkataswami and the Revenue Inspector Khaja Khader Mohiuddin with a shawl and a Bunder cloth respectively. I report this to the Board in order that in case the acceptance of such presents be thought objectionable, orders may be passed on the subject.

Comptroller of Accounts Office
Comptroller 10th May 1895
I have &c
1st A. Medderton
Collector

Submitted for the orders of Government.
2. The Board think that the Tahsildar and Revenue Inspector may be permitted to retain the presents in question.
