Read the following letter from G. D. IRVINE, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector in charge of the South Arcot District, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cuddalore, 5th July 1875, No. 289:—

IN forwarding copies of judgment and decree in Appeal Suit No. 75 of 1872 on the file of the District Court at Cuddalore, for the defence of which sanction was accorded by the Board in their Proceedings, dated 12th December 1873, No. 2,585, I have the honor to request sanction of the Board for the disbursement to the Vakeel of Rupees 121-15-3, being the costs incurred by him therein as detailed below.

2. The appeal has been dismissed, but the parties have been directed to bear their own costs. The Government Vakeel applied for costs as directed in paragraph 3 of the Board's Proceedings under acknowledgment, but the Court refused to grant them.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.—Copy of Decree.

SUBMITTED to Government with reference to G.O., dated 18th May 1872, No. 801, and Board's Proceedings, dated 12th December 1873, No. 2,585.

2. A portion of the bed of a tank which was abandoned as useless having been assigned for cultivation to the 3rd defendant, plaintiffs sued for the restoration of the tank, and further contended that in case the land were given for cultivation, they, as resident ryots, had a preferential claim. The suit was dismissed, but it was decreed that all parties should pay their own costs. Government concurred in the opinion expressed by the Board that there was no reason to question the propriety of the decision as to costs.

3. On appeal by plaintiffs the Appellate Court has confirmed the original decision and passed a similar order in regard to costs.

4. The sanction of Government is solicited for payment of the Collector's costs, Rupees 121-15-3.
