the history of

richly described

His list shows the districts which have & have not Apistants.
Vigay is the largest & least managed
of those without Apistants. It seems a question whether an Apistant
is not more wanted
there than in Chingfuput.

From,

A. T. A. Goodrich Esquire
Acting Collector

To,
The Honble D. F. Farnichack
Secy. Chief Secretary to Government, Cotacaimund

Sir,

In confirmation of my telegram of this date, I regret to report that my Deputy Collector (in charge of Salt) Mohamed Ali has been stricken with paralysis and must be relieved from duty.

2. In soliciting early orders for the appointment of a temporary successor to him I must again represent the serious inconvenience resulting from there being no Assistant posted to the District. The Collector and Agent has for several years past been obliged to call in his Principal Assistant to take charge of the Sugar Station during his long absence in the Hills and has thereby deprived the Southern Diluge of the effective inspection which in the

the cooler months they would have received. After return the Collector is unable to carry out the repeated orders of the Board of Revenue and inspect the Salt divisions during the season for this he may travel on Sundays and holidays to Palacheruvu and Pinnipattam, if he visits Kondaiah and Ruppili he must leave Nagapattam for some days without a Magistrate with full powers.

2. As long as this District has no Assistant Magistrate posted there, some work that ought to be done will be left undone.

Have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A. G. G. G.
