in the preparation of the forms referred to in paragraph 16 of the Resolution of the Government of India, dated 9th April last, No. 66/C.

2. It will be seen that these difficulties are chiefly similar to those already detailed† in respect to the statements prescribed by the Secretary of State, and that every endeavour is being made to furnish them in as complete a form as possible.

3. With reference to the ambiguity noticed by the Board in paragraph 16 of the Resolution quoted above, this Government have intimated that they have little doubt that all forms containing any additional information are required, and not merely those that are entirely new.
