FOR ORDERS.

As W. Schiffrin cannot claim the benefit of the Fischer & C. S. Index writing is in my opinion liable to these conditions.
I do not choose to give him leave to throw his views or destruction on the same.

Other day. He cannot be held liable & responsible for the period if he is not prescribed at the time.

I do sanction the full pay. but I must be that as he is not liable to the conditions of the Leave Rules. so when there is he entitled to this benefit as of right.
and that this must be clearly understood in future. J.D.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 15th June 1875

Read the following
No 297

From Mr. R. Robertson Esqre, M.R.A.
Superintendent, Government Farms
To, H. E. Stokes Esqre, By Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Chupauk

Sir, I have the honor to enclose a copy of a letter received from Mr Schiffmayer referring to the deduction made in his pay for last month, on account of his absence on sick Leave. With reference to this application, I would remark that the first month of Mr Schiffmayer's absence was charged as "Excemption Leave", and he accordingly drew full pay. The remainder of the time he

he was absent was charged as "Sick Leave," and for this period he was paid only half salary, it is to this deduction that he refers.

From,
Gaspar Schiffmayer
To, The Superintendent of Government Farms

Sir,
For the month of May my salary of Rs 250 was reduced to Rs 127 As 13 Ps 2 on account of the sick-leave granted to me.

I sustain hereby a loss of Rs 122 As 2 Ps 10, which would bring me in great inconvenience, as I had to make considerable expenditure expenditure on account of my last sickness.

1715/11

I therefore request the Superintendent of Government Farms to submit this to the kind consideration of the Government, in order that the full amount may be granted to me.

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Government.

2. The Uncovenanted Civil Service Rules do not appear to be applicable to Mr Schiffmayer and his engagement engagement contains no provision as to the terms on which leave shall be granted.

No 1315

Full pay is sanctioned for the period during which his shipper was on sick leave.

It must be understood however that as he is not liable to the conditions of the leave rules so neither is he entitled to their benefit as of right.
