Miscellaneous.

SIR,—With reference to the Financial Secretary's letter, dated 18th June 1875, No. 1,394, I am directed to state that it is impossible to make any reduction in the existing establishments without impairing their efficiency, while at the same time the pay of the Sub-Magistrates in question is manifestly inadequate; and, considering the practical difficulty often experienced in securing the services of competent men for the appointments, it is desirable that early measures should be adopted for placing the class of servants referred to on a more satisfactory footing. I am, therefore, to request a reconsideration of the subject of this office letter, dated 16th April 1875, No. 605.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Signed) A. MACGREGOR,
Acting Secretary to Government.
