Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
22nd September 1875.

No. 196. Read the following letter from J. E. O'CONNOR, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Revenue, Agriculture, and Commerce (Statistics), to A. MACGREGOR, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Government of Madras, Revenue Department, dated Simla, 8th September 1875, No. 534 :—

In reply to your letter of the 27th July, No. 1,119, I am directed to state that the additions to the list of articles therein proposed are approved. The articles mentioned should be entered in future in the trade returns, monthly and annual, prepared for the Presidency of Madras.

2. I am to add that the Government of Madras may exercise its discretion in regard to the addition of articles to the present list. All that is necessary is that care should be taken to secure the proper classification of articles under general heads. That a uniform practice may be observed in this respect, it will be desirable to report all proposed additions as occasion may arise for them and their classification in the lists to the Government of India.
