Proceedings of the Board of Revenue
Dated 23rd June 1875

Read the following

No 244

From

W. MacLachlan Esquire

Collector of Madras

To

H. C. Stokes Esquire

Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Madras

Sir,

I have the honor to submit copy of a letter with 4 enclosures from Mr Burrows dated 18 May 1875, No 124, claiming the full pay of Special Assistant for the time he was in charge of Ramnad and deputation allowance for being in charge of the Head Assistant's office in addition to the Ramnad Office from 2nd to 7 April last.

2. I think the Acting Special Assistant is clearly entitled to full pay. The Ramnad Estate has nothing to do with Mr. Lee Warner during his absence. The Government have received the proper compensation for his furlough allowance and the full salary of Special Assistant is available for the Acting Manager of the Estate. strictly speaking it is not a Government appointment except in name and the Acting Allowance rules do not fairly apply to it.

3. With regard to the second request I have only to observe that Mr. Lee Warner went away before the arrival of Mr. Moore and consequently Mr. Burrows was in charge of both offices from the 2nd to the 7th April. He seems entitled to his deputation allowance as Acting Head.

Head Assistant till he gave over charge of that office and if he cannot draw more than the full salary of one office the Estate should only pay the difference between Head Assistant and Special Assistant's salary since the services of Mr. Burrows were only partially placed at the disposal of the estate before the 7th April.

I have & Madura Collector's office, Sd/- W. Medhurst
Camp Periacolum }
9 June 1875 } Collector.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. The Board are of opinion that Mr. Burrows is entitled to the full pay of the post from the date on which he took charge of the Special Assistant's office. For the period during which he also had charge of the Head Assistant's office he

he is not entitled to Deputation allow-ance in addition to full pay as Special Assistant. His salary for this period might be divided equally between Govern-ment and the Pannau Estate.
