Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
30th June 1875.

No. 600. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. M. SHAW-STEWART, R.E., Consulting Engineer for Railways, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. MULLINS, R.E., Officiating Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 18th June 1875, No. 344 :—

WITH reference to the Proceedings of Government, No. 1,403, dated 21st May 1875, requesting a report as to whether the credit-note system is now in operation in all Government Departments, I have the honor to state that I learn from the Agent of the Madras Railway that the following departments still keep open accounts with the Company :—

The Commissary-General for troops—In many instances.
Do. stores— Do.
Public Works Department— Do.
Superintendent of Stationery—In all cases.
Inspector-General of Police— Do.
Assistant do. do.— Do.
Commissioner of Police, Madras— Do.
District Superintendent of Police—Do.
Deputy-Collector in charge of Treasury, North Arcot, do.

This necessitates the keeping open of about twenty-seven heads of account.

2. Mr. Elwin adds, — " the Remount Agent, Oossoor, not having had any transactions with the Company since March, I am unable to say whether he proposes to adopt the credit-note system or not. The Quartermaster-General's Department has just commenced issuing credit notes on account of telegrams."

3. The Agent of the South Indian Railway states that the credit-note system has not yet been brought into force by any Government Department in its dealings with that Company.

No. 601. ORDER THEREON, 3 h June 1875, No. 1,824.

RAILWAY, No. 79.

HIS EXCELLENCY the Governor in Council desires that the Agents of the Railway Companies will give notice to those Government Departments who have not yet adopted the credit-note system that no open accounts will be maintained after a certain date to be specified. At the expiration of this period the credit-note system only will be recognized in transactions between Government Departments and the Railway Companies.
