intelligence of that able Officer. His provision of the Settlement, which approves and sanctions is characterized by care and moderation. It presents a slight increase of 3 per cent on the present demand, the enhancement being due to more accurate measurement.

3. The causes to which have led to the exceptional unfavorable condition of the cultivators of this district, are stated to be,

I The Inundation system

II The inefficiency of the village service establishment

III The condition of the Marawari Lands.

On the first of these considerable difference of opinion exists, as to whether the present results are due to evil inherent in the system or only to errors in the administration of our Officers. Your Excellency's Predecessor in Council determined to pursue further questions by the special investigation of Mr. Duckle. I shall await with interest the further proceedings of your Government on the receipt of Mr. Duckle's report.

I have the honor to be
