Miscellaneous No 4242 ✓

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 14th May 1875.

Read the following

No 92

From Mr. Horsley Esqre, Collector of Guddapah

To, Mr. E. Stokes Esqre,

Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras

Sir, With reference to the Proceedings of the Board, Miscellaneous No 269, dated January 16th 1873 and 4469 dated July 18th 1873, I have the honor to state that the new settlement having been introduced into the Proddatur Taluk, the reduction of Mr. Raghavendrarao the Tahsildar of Vilpand may now take place with reference

reference to the order contained in the first mentioned Proceedings.

2. As by death, and reductions, circumstances have altered since the Board sanctioned in their Miscellaneous Proceedings No 1110 dated February 24th 1873 the proposals I made consequent on the reduction of M. Raghavendrarow, it will be necessary now to arrange for the reduction of M. Raghavendrarow, in some other way.

3. Before doing so I wish the Board to reconsider their order, in Proceedings No 269. I say, in my letter to which those Proceedings refer that Raghavendrarow the Tahsildar of Vilpauri admitted to me personally that he had made a

a false statement, but from what he has told me since I must have misunderstood what he said to me. He maintains that Mr Lister is mistaken in saying that he consulted Raghavendrarow on the subject of the transfer. Raghavendrarow says that Mr Lister had repeatedly sent for him on that day to speak to him on matters connected with the Taluk, but not about the transfer. Mr Lister too did not write very confidently on the subject and I think I am right in saying (for I have not got his letter by me) that as far as he could remember he consulted Raghavendrarow regarding the transfer. I

I am quite certain of this that the Tahsildar Raghavendarow had no object in bringing about the transfer, but that the Secd Clerk of the Sub Collector's Office had a good reason for effecting it.
He benefitted by it, but Raha-vendarow did not. This is quite clear from the manner in which Raghavendarow mentioned the transfer to me as an objectionable proceeding, and in consequence of what he told me I directed the Sub Collector to inquire into the matter.
Holding the views that he did it is not at all likely that had Mr Lister consulted Raghavendarrow, the latter would have held his tongue and allowed the transfer to

3
to which he objected to take place.
From the inquiries I have since made, I firmly believe that the Tahsildar Raghavendarow had no share whatever in effecting the transfer, and that had he been consulted, the transfer would never have taken place. When it was made he did his best through me to get the transfer cancelled, and succeeded in doing so. I beg that the Board will reconsider their decision in this case, and allow Raghavendarow to remain where he is at Volpau.

4. If the reduction is to take place, I must propose that Raghavendarow

Raghavendrarao be sent to the Budwail Taluk. For the reasons already stated by me, in former correspondence I would rather he were made Tahsildar of Sidhout, but as I have proposed in another letter that the Tahsildar of Proddatur should be reduced to the Sidhout Taluk, the original arrangement cannot now stand. I trust however that the Board will take a favorable view of Raghavendra-rao's case, for I firmly believe that he had nothing whatever to do with the improper transfer of the two Gumastaks.

I remain
(Signed) W. D. Horsley
Collector-
In

In the circumstances, and in deference to the Collector's strong expression of belief in Raghavendra Rao's innocence, the Board resolve to recall their former order and to permit him to continue Tahsildar of Kailpand.
