No. 22. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th October 1875, No. 2,851:—

Read the following letter from J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cuddalore, 21st September 1875, No. 398.

ADVERTING to Board's Proceedings, No. 164, of the 26th January last, I have the honor to state that Meer Hussein Alli Saib, Inamdar of Velakandal, claims the payment of the amount of assessment collected by Government during the time his inam lands were held by strangers on iyen puttas. The amount due to him is reported to be Rupees 316-3-10 as per statement enclosed, and I request that the Board will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for its disbursement.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Statement.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. It appears from the Collector's letter recorded in G.O., dated 15th February 1875, No. 239, that Meer Hussein Alli, manager of a mosque and as such the holder of an inam title-deed for the village of Velakandal, complained to the revenue authorities in 1870 that there was a deficiency in the extent of his inam lands. He was referred to the Inam Commissioner, who decided in 1871 that, "if the alleged encroachments are established to be within the recognized boundaries of the inam village, such lands, being covered by the title-deed part of the musjid inam, and the assessment due thereon, if now paid to Government, will be hereafter payable to the holder of the title-deed."

2. A survey was then made, the result of which showed that Cawnies 141-13-2 belonging to the inam village had been absorbed by four Government villages. Of this extent, Cawnies 37-5-2, assessed at Rupees 75-0-4, were held on putta in those villages and the remainder was unoccupied. The land was accordingly restored to the Inamdar in 1874. He now claims the assessment collected by Government on this land from Fasli 1269 to 1283.

4. In the circumstances stated the claim seems valid. The Board, therefore, recommend that payment of the amount, Rupees 316-3-10, be sanctioned.
