No 28.

Sir,

The despatch of your Excellency in Council dated 28th June No 19 of 1875, transmitting a Memorial from Seetu Rao late Tahsildar of Musseri in the District of Trichinopoly has been considered by me in Council.

conviction and sentence recorded against him on charges of receiving illegal gratifications. The case has been dealt with by the District Magistrate of Trichinopoly and on appeal by the District Judge. Your Excellency in Council does not recommend any mitigation of the sentence passed.

3. I see no reason for doubting the propriety of the conclusions at which the Magistrate and the Judge have arrived in two out of three charges preferred against the accused. I shall not therefore in any way interfere in favour of the Memorialist.
