Her son Mahomed Adum. 3 Landed property in the villages of Thelloor and Sekanoor in Vellore Taluk assessed at Rupees 53-4-11 held as Service Maniem. Putta is in the name of the deceased's husband, Mahomed Yacoub (deceased), and Tippoo Saib.	The entire allowance of this service yeomiah of Rupees 65 per annum was in the enjoyment of Mahomed Yacoub under the sanction conveyed in the Proceedings of Government, dated 16th August 1869, No. 2,344. On his demise, one half of this allowance was continued to his widow Ameena Bibi and the other half to his nephew Mahomed Tippoo under the sanction conveyed in the Order of Government, dated 8th December 1871, No. 43, communicated with the Board's Proceedings, dated 20th idem, Miscellaneous No. 4,763. Ameena Bibi died on the 2nd March 1875 without male issue. The above-named Mahomed Tippoo and Zahara Bibi, the daughter of the deceased, each claim the moiety of the allowance in question, viz., Rupees 32-8-0. As Mahomed Tippoo is already in the enjoyment of the other moiety of the allowance, the Collector is of opinion that the moiety enjoyed by the deceased Ameena Bibi should be continued to her daughter Zahara Bibi, and accordingly recommends that her late mother's share may be continued in her name from the date of her mother's death (2nd March 1875), and that the arrears due to the deceased from 1st July 1873 may be paid to Zahara Bibi. From the reports received from the Tahsildar of Vellore Taluk, it appears that the service in the Musjid is duly kept up by Mahomed Omer, Nalb of the deceased and husband of Zahara Bibi.
