I HAVE the honor, in obedience to G. O., dated 29th September 1875, No. 1,438, to report that the only officer named in the list furnished by the Adjutant-General, whose services can possibly be spared, is Major C. D. Baynes, at present on sick leave to Europe. The other officers are some of the most valuable in the Survey, and the withdrawal of any of them would seriously cripple the department.
