On consideration
of the figures relating to our Provincial allotment for India
and especially of the consequence of our voluntarily assuming the charges for Indian police subsequently to the introduction of the system of Provincial assignments -

It must be of our own act & relinquishing of Provincialities

Forwarding statement of and inland consumption during 1874-75, together with the letter Revenue relating to it.

When 2. & 3 has

previously toward Bia charges -
I do not think we can make out a case for asking $ for a special grant
for salt guards
inasmuch as we are not spending more than the
amt. of the special
ass't. for the purpose

plus that for the voluntary relinquish.
I do not think we need

In view of its having been resolved to deal as a whole with the question of the increasing expenditure on salt guards & to make application to the Government of India
for an additional grant to meet this charge a special
application in the matter of the Ganjam
salt guards is no longer necessary.
