Read the following letter from J. HUNTER-BLAIR, Esq., Collector of Madras, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd September 1875, No. 302.

With reference to the Board's Proceedings, No. 7,627, of the 21st ultimo communicating Government Order, dated 26th July 1875, No. 1,111, I have the honor to submit, for the Board's consideration and orders, a letter from the First Assistant Resident at Haidarabad enclosing a petition from the sons of the late Syed Alli, in which they state that the distribution of their pensionary allowance is not in accordance with Mahomedan law.

From W. TWEEDIE, Esq., First Assistant Resident, Haidarabad, to J. HUNTER-BLAIR, Esq., Collector of Madras, dated Haidarabad Residency, 23rd September 1875, No. 693.

With reference to your endorsement, No. 552, dated 24th August, forwarding copy of the orders of the Government of Madras in regard to the proportions in which the allowance of the late Syed Alli Sahib is to be divided amongst his sons and daughters, I have the honor, under instructions from the Resident, to forward, for such action as may be considered necessary, English translation of a petition from the sons of the late Syed Alli representing that the allowance of their father has not been properly divided, and soliciting that the Government of Madras

Translation of a Petition, dated 16th September 1875, from SYED BUDRODEEN, SYED IBRAHIM, and SYED ABDUL KHADUR, sons of the late Syed Alli, addressed to the Extra Assistant Commissioner, Haidarabad.

In reply to endorsement calling for descriptive rolls, petitioners beg to state that the rolls will be furnished, but, in the mean time, they would represent that the amount of pension has not been properly divided amongst them as, according to Mahomedan law, a son would get a double share of the father's estate, while the daughter would come in for a single share; solicits, therefore, that the Government will be pleased to divide the amount of pension between petitioners according to the Mahomedan law and furnish each of them with pension certificates.
