PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from Messrs. C. Foster and Co., Publishers of the "Journal of Education", to the Chief Secretary to Government dated 7th December 1874, requesting that the "Madras Journal of Education" may be placed on the list of publications to which all public papers bearing on education shall be furnished.

Order thereon 19th December 1874, No. 1334

Ordered that the publications and papers given to the newspapers be supplied also to the "Madras Journal of Education". They cannot be sent under cover as solicited, but will, as is done in the case of other newspapers, be given to the messenger sent to the Government office for the purpose.
