G.O., 29th November 1875, No. 1,708.

NOVEMBER.

No. 324.

Permanent Advance of the Revenue Secretary.
—Resolving to raise the — from Rs. 50 to Rs.
100 for Telegraph charges, and sanctioning a permanent advance of Rs. 50 for the purchase of books and publications.

sum is found insufficient and it is proposed therefore to increase monthly expenditure for paper & Rs 185.

Oct. 1874 to Sep. 1875

increase the amount under this head to Rs 100 -

2. At present there is no separate provision for the purchase of books and publications, and such books as ^{are} ~~are~~ required ^{are} ~~are~~ purchased from the sanctioned allowance of Rs 50 for contingencies, but the charge for this item has not considerably increased, and consequently a separate allowance of Rs 50 is required for the purchase of books.

In justification of the proposed increase of this grant I am
of the opinion that the purchase of books
can be necessary
knowing of course the Sec. will take care that the expenditure is unobjectionable.

Memo for Orders

In G.O. 30th

July 1859 sanction was accorded for Rs 50 being placed at the disposal of the Secretary to Govt in the Revenue Department as a permanent advance to defray the charges of Telegraph messengers.

This however is now found insufficient as the actual

actual charge during the past year averaged Rs 191 monthly. It is proposed, therefore, to increase the advance under this head to Rs 100.

2. The permanent advance sanctioned for Contingencies in G.O. 14th April 1859 is Rs 50, which hitherto covered the purchase of books and publications but the expenditure under this head has now considerably increased;
the amount expended during the past seven months of the current year being

Rupers

At present Rs 50 is not sufficient for the purchase
of books & publications
and a separate provision of Rs 50 is required
for the purchase
from the sanctioned allowance of Rs 50

consequently
a separate provision
for the purchase

the Secretary for this purpose, apart from the advance of

3. Inclusive of the present permanent advance of Rs 200 for Official Postage, the total permanent advance for the Rev.
