Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 11th December 1875.

No. 150. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 16th November 1875, Miscellaneous No. 10,315:—

Read again Board's Proceedings, dated 14th September 1875, Miscellaneous No. 8,353.

Read also the following letter from R. J. MELVILLE, Esq., Acting Collector of the Chingleput District, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chingleput, 22nd October 1875, No. 609.

Referring to Board's Miscellaneous No. 8,353, dated 14th ultimo, I have the honor to forward a plan showing the additional accommodation provided at the chuttrum at Athur.

2. The apartments intended for the different castes are marked in the plan. It appears that the unfinished portion enclosed by the wall east of the new building is not intended for travellers, but for the occupation of the Managers of the chuttrum on the occasion of their visits to the same.

No. 151. ORDER THEREON, 11th December 1875, No. 1,704.

Miscellaneous.

These Proceedings refer to an unauthorised alienation of land on favorable assessment to a chuttrum (or resting place for travellers) in a village formerly held on Zemindari tenure.

The grant was made by the then Zemindar in 1851, but the village since lapsed to Government, and was eventually brought under field war assessment. In connection with this settlement, the question of the tenure of the chuttrum endowment came under consideration.

2. The Government, on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, sanctioned the continuance of the grant upon the condition that "the chuttrum rules are fully conformed to," (G. O., 13th April 1874, No. 460).

3. The chuttrum, however, provided accommodation only to Brahmins and Sudras; but the trustees of the endowment agreed to provide for other classes also. For this they were allowed a certain time, and the Collector's reports, now communicated by the Board, show that some additional accommodation has been provided.

4. The plan of the building shows that the entire premises consist of two main compartments originally intended for Brahmins and Sudras, respectively; the accommodation now provided for Parahs is a small enclosed verandah on the east side, and that for Mahomedans a smaller verandah on the north side of the compartment of Chittrials and Sudras. The provision thus made for other classes does not appear to conform "fully" to the chuttrum rules. These, as contained in the Standing Order of the Board of Revenue, No. 105, prescribe a plan comprising two distinct buildings of similar size and description, — one for Brahmins and Sudras, and the other for other classes of the people,—and require that, “under any circumstances, the building for the latter should not furnish less accommodation than is shown in the plan.”

5. The question, therefore, on which orders are now required, whether the building accommodation which has been provided for classes other than Brahmmins and Sudras is to be accepted as sufficient or not, must be answered in the negative. It was a concession continuing the endowment to all, and if those concerned do not, within a reasonable time to be fixed by the Board in communication with the Collector, provide the accommodation for all classes which the rules of Government require in such cases, the land appropriated to the support of the abutram must be brought under full assessment.

under previous assessment. In connection with this settlement, the question of the tenure of the Christian monument came under consideration.

2. The G.S., on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, sanctioned the continuance of the grant upon the condition that the Christian rules are fully complied with (H.O. 18th April 1874 No. 260).

3. The Christian monument provided accommodation only for Brahmins and Jadras, but the trustees of the monument agreed to provide for this class also. For this they were allowed a certain

report was communicated by the Board, showing that of the compact of Chittur and Sudras.

The provision thus made for the classes does not appear therefore to conform fully to the Chittur rules. These are contained in the Standing order of the Board of Revenue No. 105, prescribe a plan comprising two distinct buildings of similar size and description, one for Brahmins & Sudras and the other for other classes of the people, and require that "under any circumstances the building for the latter shall not furnish less accommodation than is shown in the plan."

required, whether the building accommodation which has been provided for classes other than Brahmins and Sudras is to be accepted as sufficient or not, must be answered in the negative.
It was a concession containing the endowment to all, and if those concerned as not, within a reasonable time to be fixed by the Board in communication with the Collector, provide the accommodation for all classes, shall the Rules of Govt. require in such case, the land appropriated to the endowment the Chittur endowment be brought under full assessment.
