Read the following papers :—

No. 154. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd October 1875, Miscellaneous No. 9,589.

Read the following letter from J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cuddalore, 29th September 1875, No. 412.

With reference to Board's Miscellaneous Proceedings, No. 7,380, dated 14th ultimo, forwarding to me for report G. O., dated 29th July 1875, No. 1,146, Revenue Department, on a letter from Major S. W. B. Sherman, British Consular Agent at Pondicherry, dated 13th July last, No. 125, I have the honor to state that I do not consider the first ground on which Major Sherman asks for an increase of peons a valid one, inasmuch as the roads are not in bad order nor unsafe, though I dare say that officer feels considerable inconvenience when both his peons are away. There is no reason, however, why they should be ever away more than one day at a time.

2. Major Sherman makes monthly remittances to Cuddalore of collections of duty on wines, &c., after deducting from them the pay of his establishment and his own salary. I see no reason why the balance should not be remitted to the Custom-house at Reddi Chavadi half way between Cuddalore and Pondicherry, and sent on with the monthly remittances of that station. This would halve the distance to be traversed and the danger to be encountered by the Major's two peons.

3. I do not, of course, wish to be understood as in any way deprecating an addition to that officer's establishment on other grounds. On the contrary, if Pondicherry is "the Head Office," and if the Consular Agent at Karikal has four peons, certainly it seems anomalous that the Consular Agent at Pondicherry should have only two, especially as his "office and duties are greater."

SUBMITTED to Government with reference to G. O., 29th July 1875, No. 1,146.

2. The Board do not think that necessity for the increase of establishment asked for is made out. The Consular Agent should adopt the suggestion made by Mr. Garstin in paragraph 2.

No. 155. Endorsement of the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 19th November 1875, No. 680.

Read the following letter from Major S. W. B. SHERMAN, British Consular Agent, Pondicherry, to the Hon. D. F. OARMICHAEL, Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, Public Department, dated Pondicherry, 17th November 1875, No. 178.

I have the honor to remind you of my letter, No. 125, dated the 13th July last, on the subject of two additional peons that I require on the strength of my present establishment, as I have to send on the first of every month one of the peons into Cuddalore for the purpose of escorting the pay of the office, and to remit whatever money I have in hand on account of the Sayer Department into the treasury of Cuddalore on account of Government; and this leaves me only a single peon to assist in the work of the office for taking official letters to the post or any other emergent business, and, in case of sickness of either of them, I am put to very great inconvenience: I request, therefore, you will be good enough to favor me with the views of Government as to whether they are disposed to sanction the entertainment of two additional peons, at Rs. 5 each, for my office, so placing my establishment with reference to the peons in the same footing as that of my colleague at Karikal.

TRANSFERRED to the Revenue Department for disposal in connection with endorsement, dated 19th July 1875.

Officiating Chief Secretary.

No. 156. From J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, to the Under-Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Cuddalore, 25th November 1875, No. 110.

In reply to your official memorandum of 17th instant, No. 167, I have the honor to state that Reddi Chavadi is about 7½ miles from Pondicherry. The average monthly collections of the Consular Agent during the current year amount to Rs. 656 as shown in the margin, but since September he has been allowed to pay his own and his subordinates' salaries from the collections made by him, and the balance is only remitted to the treasury. In consequence of this arrangement, his actual cash remittances to the treasury in September and October last were, respectively, Rs. 1,947 and Rs. 2½ only.
