vide No. 30 Schedule II of the General

General Stamp Act. ✓

The Collector's attention is also called to the following errors and discrepancies:-

Deed No. 11. The date, twelfth, in the first line is misspelt both in the original and duplicate. The residence of the party as entered in the deed is Benign Laparan and his residence as stated by himself after his signature is Puttoor.

No. 13. The description of the party given in the deed does not correspond with that given by himself after his signature. The party should be described in the deed with reference to the position he held on the date of execution.

Note The party executing the deed being a female the pronouns referring to her should be altered to the feminine gender.

In regard to the deeds ~~presented~~ the Board note as follows.

When the signatures of the witnesses are in the vernacular character it is unnecessary to repeat their names & use the English character. The entry of the name of the place of execution in the vernacular character in the sentence "signed sealed &c" is also also unnecessary. 3

~~It is~~ The deeds should be numbered in the order of their execution and deeds of sale and deeds for the redemption of assessment should be numbered in separate series.

The collector should see that more care is taken in the preparation of documents of the kind in question.
