Memo for orders.

Proprs of the Board of
Rev. of 9 Sep. 1875
No. 8/1874.

In this case the Board apparently consider the payment required to be more of the nature of a land revenue refund than of compensation for land. The Govt. have sanctioned a reduction of Peshkash by as much as the Zamindars have lost in the shape of assessment on the lands taken up for the Railway; but the amount thus remitted was collected for the two years which intervened between the loss of land and the reduction of Peshkash. It requires, therefore, to be now refunded.

If, however, the charge is to be debited to the Railway, the Comr. should be instructed to submit the claim for the sanction of Govt. through the Consulting Engineer, including it in the registers prescribed for land taken up for Railways.
