Land Revenue

is due to the increased export of grain to Beylon.
 Salt.
 is due to the resort of traders in larger numbers on account of favourable prices.
 is due to large sales on account of the suppression of the use of the earth salt.
 is due partly to the opening of new pans at Moolatur and Unar due to the ordinary vicissitudes of the trade.
 is due to larger quantity of salt sold at Hornes garden and Choyar Division.
 Current Fasli
 is due to the difficulty of getting salt elsewhere either from failure of the Palar River being impassable.
 is due to the Sanjore merchants having bought a large quantity of salt at Vethunam in preference to the salt to be had at the pans of the District.

G. Increase due to the Madras Cartmen having taken salt for their return loads instead of Railway materials.
 W. Increase due to large sales for Home Consumption.
 V. Decrease due to the merchants of Northern Divisions having bought salt in the South Arcot District, and those of the Southern Divisions not having bought salt owing to increase in the price of salt.
 W. Increase due to the Process Service Fee being paid in Stamps.
 K. Increase due to large sales on discount system.
