Miscellaneous No. 408

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 20 January 1875.

Read the following

From

No. 1536

J. Hunter Blair Esquire

Collector of Sea Customs

To

J. Grace Esquire

Secretary Board of Revenue

Sir,

I have the honor to request you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government to exempt P. Karadarajulu Naidu, a clerk in this office, from passing the General Test Examination as a special case.

2. Though Karadarajulu Naidu entered the service previous to 1859 as a peon, he was actually employed as an Assistant to the Recordkeeper, being able to read and write English fairly. His practical knowledge of the routine of the Custom House makes him very useful, and he is well deserving promotion -

He is 38 years old and it is now very difficult for him to qualify himself to pass the General Test with his other duties attend to.

Similar cases were favorably considered and sanctioned by Government in the orders marginally noted.

Sea Custom House } I have gr.
Madras 16 Decr 174. } 187 J. Hunter Blair
Collector Sea Customs.

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Government on the ground that although only drawing Peon's pay before 1859 J. Varadarajulu Naidu was doing work the proper <sup>pay</sup> of which would have entitled him to exemption from the General Test Examination 27.1.

I must the government as to the claims

47
of other men, has considerable power. But it has not <sup>hitherto</sup> presented the pr. from Exemption in a great many cases from the General List. And I do hesitate to remove the policy, and for the future to refuse all Exemptions -

But if we are not to refuse all Exemptions - is not this a case for me? Then man. ~~now~~ ~~presently~~ may be because the value of his work before 1854 was real so that, if we are ever to be brought, it will seem that we ought to do it here. 28/1
