Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 18th August 1875.

Read the following letter from W. D. HORSLEY, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 9th August 1875, No. 165:—

Arni Kristna Row, Tahsildar of Kadiri, but acting at Madanapalli for Ramanjulu Naidu, having been appointed to act as Deputy Collector, I have the honor to recommend, at the suggestion of the Sub-Collector, that Royachoti Nagesa Row, Sheristadar of Madanapalli Taluq, may be appointed to act as Tahsildar of that taluq.

2. Nagesa Row has passed the required tests and completed his qualifying service.

3. I request that the Board, if they approve of my nomination, will allow Nagesa Row to draw deputation allowance.

Petition No. 1,649 of 1875 from Ramanjulu Naidu, Tahsildar of Madanapalli.

In their Proceedings of the 20th November 1873, No. 2,371, the Board censured the conduct of Ramanjulu Naidu, in a case of embezzlement of Government money by a Monigar, whilst he was Tahsildar of Chittoor, and requested the Collector of Cuddapah, to which district Ramanjulu Naidu had been transferred, to report on the manner in which he had performed his work since his transfer.

2. The first report, dated 6th January 1874, was to the effect that Ramanjulu Naidu had not been sufficiently long in the district to enable the Collector to form an opinion, but that so far he had shown no signs of apathy. The second report recorded in Board's Proceedings, dated 15th August 1874, No. 2,267, was unfavorable, and the Board decided that Ramanjulu Naidu must be required to retire as soon as he has served his time for pension, otherwise the Board would be obliged to recommend his dismissal or reduction to a lower grade. Meanwhile, Ramanjulu Naidu took privilege leave, and subsequently on his return from privilege leave he was granted leave on medical certificate. The exact period of sick leave granted is not clear. The medical certificate recommended the grant of six months, and in his letter of the 7th January 1875, No. 3, the Collector reported that he had "sanctioned the leave," but the docket of that letter gives the period as three months, as also does the Collector's letter of the 3rd February 1875, and from the enclosures to the petition it would appear that the petitioner claimed his post on the expiration of three months, viz., 4th April.

Board's Miscellaneous Proceedings, dated 22nd October 1874, No. 7,345, and 19th February 1875, No. 1,303.

3. Meanwhile the Collector had reported, that owing to a break in Ramanjulu Naidu's service consequent on dismissal in 1858, by which he forfeited his previous service, he could not retire at once, and suggested that sanction should be obtained for his service prior to dismissal being allowed to reckon towards pension. The Board in their Proceedings of 4th March 1875, No. 1,758, declined to make a reference on the subject, and directed the Collector to present to Ramanjulu Naidu the alternative stated in their Proceedings of 15th August 1874, No. 2,267, as he could not be allowed to remain in the service so long as appeared necessary to entitle him to pension. The Collector finally reported that Ramanjula Naidu had no intention of retiring, and wished to appeal, and that he had directed the Sub-Collector to furnish him with the subject of the complaints made against him, which, however, does not appear to have been done. This letter was recorded.

4. It now appears from the Collector's endorsement of 7th July 1875 (Enclosure No. III. to the petition), that the Collector has declined to allow Ramanjulu Naidu to resume his office as Tahsildar of Madanapalli, apparently on the strength of Board's Proceedings, dated 4th March 1875, No. 1,758. The Collector had no power to suspend Ramanjulu Naidu (vide Standing Order No. XXXII. of 1874), and as the Board have nowhere authorized his suspension, he should have applied for definite instructions on this point if he thought that the Board's orders in Ramanjulu Naidu's case precluded his resuming office on the expiration of leave.

5. On further consideration, the Board are of opinion that Ramanjulu Naidu is not deserving of so severe a punishment as dismissal, involving loss of pension, and that it will be a sufficient penalty for his shortcomings if the period which has elapsed since the expiration of his leave on medical certificate is viewed as suspension, and a warning administered to the effect that if he does not give satisfactory evidence of greater diligence and attention to duty, the Board will recommend his removal without reference to pension or other considerations.

6. Ramanjulu Naidu will be reinstated on receipt of these Proceedings, and the Collector will report the date on which he will be entitled to one-third pension. From the Sub-Collector's letter which accompanied the Collector's letter of the 3rd February 1875, it would appear that he has only about ten months more to serve.
