Audit Department.

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the tenor of paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 2176, dated the 14th instant, Revenue Department, is opposed to the view taken by Government in their Order in the Pension Department, dated 28th September 1875, No. 560, and to inquire, for the future guidance of this office, which view is to be held as correct, with regard to the appointment of Conservator of Ports.

---

No. 110. ORDER THEREON, 17th November 1875, No. 2225.

It is observed that G.O., dated 14th October 1875, No. 2176, merely sanctioned the payment of certain extra charges "as reported by the Accountant-General."

2. If the amount admissible is affected by the Order* of Government, ruling that "the office of Conservator of a port is pensionable where held at a port to which the Indian Ports Act extends or is applied," the Accountant-General should submit a revised report to the department concerned.
